

- Amendment 1: Freedom of religion, speech, press, assembly, and petition
- Amendment 2: Right to keep arms
- Amendment 3: No one may be forced to house soldiers.
- Amendment 4: Rights against unreasonable search and seizure
- Amendment 5: Rights of the criminally accused (indictment by a grand jury for felonies, no double jeopardy, no self-incrimination, due process guaranteed) and right not to have private property taken by the government without fair payment
- Amendment 6: Rights of the criminally accused (speedy trial, impartial jury, informed of charges, right to confront witnesses, right to have witnesses on the accused's behalf, and the right to an attorney)
- Amendment 7: Right to a jury trial in civil cases that exceed $20 if desired by one of the parties
- Amendment 8: No unreasonable bail, fines, or punishment in criminal cases
- Amendment 9: The people also have other rights not listed.
- Amendment 10: All powers not specifically given to the federal government are reserved for the states.
- Amendment 11: Federal courts do not have jurisdiction in cases against a state.
- Amendment 12: Provides for separate elections for president and vice president
- Amendment 13: Abolishes slavery
- Amendment 14: Provides equality for all citizens and also places the state governments under previously passed Amendments
- Amendment 15: Provides all male citizens the right to vote
- Amendment 16: Gives Congress the power to pass direct taxes, such as income tax
- Amendment 17: Provides for senators to be elected by the voters of the state instead of by the state legislatures; also provides for vacancies in the Senate to be filled by the governor of the state until an election can be held
- Amendment 18: Prohibits the sale of alcoholic beverages
- Amendment 19: Gives women the right to vote
- Amendment 20: Moves the beginning of terms of office of Congress and the president and vice president to January; provides for presidential succession if a president-elect dies before being sworn into office
- Amendment 21: Repeals the Eighteenth Amendment
- Amendment 22: Limits presidents from serving more than two terms or a total of 10 years
- Amendment 23: Provides for presidential electors for the District of Columbia
- Amendment 24: Prohibits requiring payment of a tax as a qualification for voting
- Amendment 25: Provides for presidential succession and filling a vacant office of vice president
- Amendment 26: Lowers voting age from 21 to 18
- Amendment 27: States that congressional compensation increases may not take effect until after that congressional term is over